Recognized for our industry leading customer service, we serve as the trusted partner to a diverse range of aviation businesses and their insurance brokers.

The Global Difference

Global Aerospace is a leading provider of aerospace insurance with a worldwide portfolio of clients who are engaged in every aspect of the aviation and aerospace industries.

Wherever they operate or travel throughout the world, our customers rely on our commitment to industry leadership through:

- Strength and stability of our Pool
- Depth and breadth of our Talent
- Ability to innovate and problem solve
- Customer responsive structure

Across the world, the company employs approximately 350 people. Our experience dates back to the 1920s, and we have demonstrated leadership, innovation and a customer-first attitude ever since. Our underwriting is backed by a pool of high quality insurance companies that represent some of the most respected names in the business.

We are dedicated to:

Our Customers by being responsive to their insurance needs and providing excellent service through long-term partnerships based on mutual respect and confidence;

Our Shareholders and Pool Members through underwriting profitability and operational efficiency;

Our People by rewarding performance and encouraging personal development;

The Aerospace Industry by positively supporting its growth and the improvement of safety.

Our long-term strategy and mission are guided by four core values:

- Fostering the highest standards of professionalism
- Acting with integrity and honesty
- Being innovative
- Respecting diversity and one another

Decade after decade, Global Aerospace has demonstrated the integrity, wisdom and experience that has earned the trust of leading aviation companies around the globe. You can put this powerful insight and expertise to work for your organization.
